

Invitation

What can schools learn from sport?

The Catholic Education Office Melbourne (CECV), together with Gallagher Bassett, is pleased to present David Parkin to discuss, What can schools learn from sport? Principals, deputy principals, business managers, school OHS managers, return-to-work coordinators and Diocesan staff are invited to attend.

David Parkin played 220 senior games for Hawthorn Football Club and was captain of the club for six years. His achievements include involvement with Hawthorn's premiership success as captain in 1971 and later as coach in 1978. Not satisfied with this, he guided Carlton as coach to premierships in 1981, 1982 and 1995.

Date: Wednesday 17 September 2014

Venue: Catholic Leadership Centre, 576 Victoria Parade, East Melbourne

Time: Registration at 9.30 am

Session commences at 10.00 am and will conclude at approximately 12.00 pm

This is a FREE event, and morning tea will be provided.

Car Parking and Public Transport Access

Car parking: There is limited on-street parking, but there are two public car parks in the vicinity:

1) Tribeca Car Park – 166 Albert Street or 2) Wellington Street Car Park.

Tram: Stop 18 (Victoria Parade) is directly opposite the venue and can be accessed via tram number 109.

For all enquiries, and to RSVP by Monday 1 September by completing the below form and including any dietary requirements, please contact Shard Goodwin on 03 9267 0228 or via email sgoodwin@ceomelb.catholic.edu.au.

Name:
Position:
Phone:
Email:

